

There's a Grant for That!

This webinar will start shortly. The slides and the webinar recording will be available at www.dpcedcenter.org

Next webinar: February 27, 2020 at 2:00 pm Eastern

Reminders

- All phone lines are muted
- Unmute: #6 to ask questions at the end of the presentation
- Mute: *6 after your question
- Or, ask questions through the Chat Box
- You will receive the link to the recording and slides by email
- Please complete the feedback form at the end of the program

Today's Presenters

Jerome Bailey, BA

Kim Buettner, BA

Dawn Edwards - SME

There's a Grant for That: Start Your Search Today

End Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) National Coordinating Center (NCC) Patient Grant Library

January 30, 2020

DPC = Dialysis Patient Citizens

What We Will Do on Today's Call

- Discuss grant and fundraising opportunities for kidney patients and individuals impacted by kidney disease.
- Explain the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library resources.
- Hear from a patient Subject Matter Expert (SME) who is using the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library.

ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library

“I’m in there almost daily.
There are so many resources available. Every time I go in there I find something else.”

—Dawn Edwards, Legacy
Subject Matter Expert (SME)

www.esrdncc.org/patientgrantlibrary

Grants and Fundraising Options

The screenshot shows the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library website. At the top left is the ESRD NCC logo. To the right of the logo are contact details: an email icon for nccinfo@hsag.com, a phone icon for 844.472.4250, and social media icons for Facebook, YouTube, and Twitter. Below the logo is a navigation menu with six items: Patients, Professionals, Events, Networks, Resources, and Fistula First. A breadcrumb trail reads: You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library. The main heading is "The ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library". Underneath is a "Welcome" section with a paragraph about the library's purpose, a paragraph about the types of grants available, a paragraph about how to use the library, and a paragraph about the Fraud Awareness webpage. There is also a section for "Kidney Community Emergency Response (KCER) Program Grants" with a link to the "KCER Program". A "Disclaimer" section follows. On the right side of the page is a "Patient Grant Library" sidebar with a list of links: Browse a Catalog of Grants, Crowdfunding and Social Media, Emergency Grants, Fraud Awareness, Government Grants, Grants for Nonprofits, Scholarships, Share This Library On Your Site, and Unique or Talent-Based Grants. At the bottom of the page is a quote: "What Patients Are Saying..." followed by a testimonial: "This [Patient Grant Library] is a definite must for the kidney community. The ease of use".

Grants can be:

- Awarded for various ideas—big and small.
- Offered on specific talents, such as writing or art.
- Given to support ideas for providing a public service, such as kidney disease education.
- Provided to specific populations or communities, such as small business start-up grants for women and minorities.

Educational Resources

Use the educational resources that improve your grant-submitting experience to:

- Learn how to expand your writing skills.
- Discover methods for creating a budget.
- Locate hints for submitting applications.
- Find step-by-step instructions on how to apply for a government grant.

This screenshot shows the "Scholarships" page of the Patient Grant Library. At the top, there are navigation tabs for "Patients", "Professionals", "Events", and "Networks". Below the navigation is a breadcrumb trail: "You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Scholarships". The main heading is "Scholarships". The text explains that scholarships are awarded to people with specific qualities and goals, and lists the following categories: Kidney transplant recipients, Donors and their families, Caregivers, Dialysis patients, and Anyone living with chronic kidney disease at any stage. Below this is a section titled "Scholarship Sources".

This screenshot shows the "Government Grants" page of the Patient Grant Library. At the top, there are navigation tabs for "Patients", "Professionals", "Events", "Networks", "Resources", and "Fistula First". Below the navigation is a breadcrumb trail: "You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Government Grants". The main heading is "Government Grants". The text explains that grants may be offered by your local, state government or by the federal government, and lists the following categories: Grant Resources, Eligibility, and Grants.gov Application Assistance. The "Grants.gov Application Assistance" section is highlighted with a green arrow, and it contains a link to "How to Apply for Grants".

Tour the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library

Browse a Catalog of Grants

- Find a grant that meets your needs.
 - They are offered by area of interest, such as art, research, or community based.
- Details of the grant may require a fee or subscription.
 - Visit your local library to check for free access to these resources.

A screenshot of the Patient Grant Library website. The page header includes the ESRD NCC logo, contact information (nccinfo@hsag.com, 844.472.4250), and social media icons. A navigation menu contains links for Patients, Professionals, Events, Networks, Resources, and Fistula First. A breadcrumb trail reads: You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Browse a Catalog of Grants. The main heading is "Browse a Catalog of Grants". The text explains that thousands of grants are available for various interests and needs, and that a fee or subscription may be required. A section titled "Use Your Library" advises checking local libraries for free access. A list of links includes Candid, Grantspace, and Grant Watch. On the right, a "Patient Grant Library" sidebar lists categories: Browse a Catalog of Grants, Crowdfunding and Social Media, Emergency Grants, Fraud Awareness, Government Grants, Grants for Nonprofits, Scholarships, Share This Library On Your Site, and Unique or Talent-Based Grants.

Emergency Grants

The screenshot shows the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library website. At the top left is the ESRD NCC logo. To the right of the logo is the email address "nccinfo@hsag.com" and the phone number "844.472.4250", along with social media icons for Facebook, YouTube, and Twitter. Below the header is a navigation menu with tabs for "Patients", "Professionals", "Events", "Networks", "Resources", and "Fistula First". A breadcrumb trail reads "You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Emergency Grants". The main heading is "Emergency Grants". Below this is a paragraph explaining that emergency grants can pay for transportation, medication, and food, and that a social worker may need to sign the paperwork. A link is provided for disaster relief grants: "For disaster relief grants, visit the KCER Program Emergency Grants page." On the left side, there are several dropdown menus: "Grant Sources", "Examples of Assistance", "Application Example" (with an orange up arrow), and "Application Preparation". The "Application Example" dropdown is open, showing a link to "Luann Schepelmann-Eib Patient Emergency Fund Application". On the right side, there is a "Patient Grant Library" sidebar with a "Browse a Catalog of Grants" link and a list of categories: "Crowdfunding and Social Media", "Emergency Grants" (highlighted with a blue arrow), "Fraud Awareness", "Government Grants", "Grants for Nonprofits", "Scholarships", "Share This Library On Your Site", and "Unique or Talent-Based Grants".

- Available to pay for things, such as transportation, medication, and/or food to help you meet those needs
 - Check with your social worker before starting an application.
- Funded from possible grant sources such as the American Kidney Fund and the American Transplant Foundation

Scholarships

Scholarships are awarded to people with specific qualities and goals. The webpage:

- Offers links to various scholarship resources.
- Provides resources with writing tips.

This screenshot shows the top portion of the ESRD NCC website. It includes the organization's logo, contact information (nccinfo@hsag.com, 844.472.4250), and social media icons. A navigation menu at the top has four items: Patients, Professionals, Events, and Networks. Below the menu is a breadcrumb trail: "You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Scholarships". The main heading is "Scholarships". The text explains that scholarships are awarded to people with specific qualities and goals, with examples like learning new skills or talent. A list of eligible groups is provided: Kidney transplant recipients, Donors and their families, Caregivers, Dialysis patients, and Anyone living with chronic kidney disease at any stage. Below this are sections for "Scholarship Sources" and "Writing Resources".

This screenshot shows a different view of the ESRD NCC website's Scholarships page. It features the same logo and contact information. The navigation menu at the top has three items: Patients, Professionals, and Events. The breadcrumb trail is "You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Scholarships". The main heading is "Scholarships". The text and list of eligible groups are identical to the first screenshot. Below this is a section for "Scholarship Sources" which lists several specific programs: Carolyn Wilson Dialysis Patient Scholarship Program, Kidney & Urology Foundation of America (KUFA), Neyart Scholarship, The Kidney Transplant/Dialysis Association, Dialysis Scholarship Fund, Richie's Spirit Foundation, Rick Salick Memorial Scholarship, Scholarships.com, Patient Advocate Foundation, American Association on Health and Disability, Diabetes Scholars, and NKF of Utah and Idaho.

Government Grants

A screenshot of the Patient Grant Library website. The page has a navigation bar with tabs for Patients, Professionals, Events, Networks, Resources, and Fistula First. Below the navigation bar is a breadcrumb trail: "You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Government Grants". The main content area is titled "Government Grants" and includes a brief description: "Grants may be offered by your local, state government or by the federal government. They usually help fund projects that benefit the economy, public services, and education. Most of them are for universities, researchers, and non-profit organizations. However, some may accept applications from individuals. Read the requirements and see if one of these might apply to you." To the right of the main content is a "Patient Grant Library" sidebar with a list of links: "Browse a Catalog of Grants", "Crowdfunding and Social Media", "Emergency Grants", "Fraud Awareness", "Government Grants" (which is expanded to show "Grants for Nonprofits", "Scholarships", "Share This Library On Your Site", and "Unique or Talent-Based Grants"), "Grant Resources", "Eligibility", "Grants.gov Application Assistance", "Writing Resources", "Finding Statistics", and "Introduction to Grants.gov Video Series".

Grants may be offered by your local, state, or federal government.

- Fund projects that benefit the economy, public services, and education.
- Accept applications from institutions.
 - Some may accept applications from individuals.
 - Read the requirements.

Fraud Awareness

This section is dedicated to providing information about how to avoid fraud and scams.

- Be cautious of sites that promise “free money” for a small fee.
- Locate the resources for reporting fraud.
- Learn more about internet safety and terms to stay safe online.

You are here: Home ▶ Patients ▶ Patient Grant Library ▶ Fraud Awareness

Fraud Awareness

Beware of fraud! There are people who prey on other people's hopes by promising access to "free money" for just a small processing fee. Applying for a grant should be free. Use these helpful articles to learn how to avoid fraud and keep your personal information safe online.

Report Fraud

Fraud Prevention Tips

Use the Internet Safely

The tutorials provided here will help move you, step-by-step, into the world of the Internet, so that you feel comfortable with the technologies you choose to use.

End Stage Renal Disease National Coordinating Center (ESRD NCC)
Introduction to the Internet

Lesson 1: Internet Basics
The purpose of this tutorial is to help you learn:

- To understand common Internet language.
- How to locate Internet resources and information.
- More about the Internet so that you will make it a part of your everyday life.

Lesson 2: Staying Safe Online
The purpose of this tutorial is to help you learn about:

- Common privacy and safety terms.
- Scams and frauds that can be a threat to your safety.
- Tips to keep your personal information safe online..

Additional Sections

A screenshot of the ESRD NCC website. The top navigation bar includes "Patients", "Professionals", "Events", "Networks", and "Resources". Below this is a breadcrumb trail: "You are here: Home > Patients > Patient Grant Library > Grants for Nonprofits". The main heading is "Grants for Nonprofits". The content area starts with a question: "Do you already have a 501(c)(3) nonprofit? Or, are you browsing now to make plans? The sites below offer general overviews and detailed lists of possible grants available to nonprofits." Below this is an "Overview" section with an orange expand/collapse arrow. The text reads: "Need an overview of the grant process for your 501(c)(3)? This site has information on that and other topics." It lists three links: "Grant Research Tools", "Beginner's Guide to Grant Writing", and "How to Find Grants for Your Nonprofit Organization". A paragraph follows: "Your local library may have resources online and onsite. Here are two examples of libraries that have helpful information on the grant process plus some funding sources." It lists two links: "How to Find Grants for Your Nonprofit Organization" and "Funding Your Nonprofit". At the bottom is a "Grant Sources" section with a dropdown arrow.

- Crowdfunding and social media
 - Provide resources for creating a campaign.
 - Offer education for building a social media presence.
- Grants for nonprofits
 - Offer possible grants for non-profit organizations.
 - Suggest opportunities for starting a non-profit (501(c)(3)).
- Unique or talent-based grants
 - Support a unique project based on hobbies or interests.

Personal Experience

Dawn Edwards, Patient Legacy
SME, ESRD Network 2

- CEO New York State CKD Champions
- Uses the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library to search for grants
- Shares information about the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library with local kidney stakeholders and the Forum of ESRD Networks

Questions

Does anyone have a question about the resources offered through the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library?

Can anyone talk about how they plan to use the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library?

Visit the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library

- Spread the word that the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library can help find a grant for that!
 - Share the ESRD NCC Patient Grant Library on your website.
- Contact the NCC at nccinfo@hsag.com.
 - Communicate your success stories.
 - Share ideas for new content.

www.esrdncc.org/patientgrantlibrary

Like ESRD NCC

Follow @ESRDNCC

Search ESRD NCC

This material was prepared the End Stage Renal Disease National Coordinating Center (ESRD NCC) contractor, under contract with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The contents presented do not necessarily reflect CMS policy. FL-ESRD NCC-7N5TE1-01092020-01

Thank You for Attending Today!

Please complete Feedback Form

Join us for our next webinar!

Having Your Donor Find YOU!

February 27, 2020 at 2:00 pm Eastern

Presented by Harvey Mysel, two-time kidney transplant recipient

Learn more and RSVP at www.dpcedcenter.org

